Parental Consent and Release

I, _____, the parent or legal guardian, as appropriate, of _____, expressly grant my consent for their participation in the Voter Engagement Video Contest sponsored by Asian Law Alliance ("ALA Video Contest").

I have read all the rules and terms of the ALA Video Contest which can be found on ALA's website at https://asianlawalliance.org/ala-voter-engagement-video-contest/ . I understand that this activity entails the production of video content that is intended to educate and inform current or prospective eligible voters as a part of ALA's non-partisan voter engagement project. I understand that the material may contain the image, picture, voice, likeness, action of my child.

I release ownership and liability of any materials produced and submitted by my child to the ALA Video Contest. I give permission to ALA to edit, alter, copy, exhibit, distribute and publish the materials, in whole or in part, for nonprofit educational purpose, instruction or information as a part of ALA's voter engagement project. I understand and consent to the use of the material on ALA's website, social media platforms, YouTube channels and other channels used by ALA for community education and outreach.

I hereby waive, release and hold harmless Asian Law Alliance, its officers, agents, and all affiliated employees for any injury, loss, liability, damage or cost that my child might incur due to their participation in this contest whose goal is to promote non-partisan voter engagement and education. This waiver and release encompasses any and all claims, demands, suits, actions, causes of action or other legal, equitable or administrative proceedings of any kind related to my child's participation in this contest, which I may now or hereafter have as the parent of my child and/or which my child may now or hereafter have, either before or after they have reached the age of majority.
